A Log

Chronological and Alphabetical

Compiled by

Jay Hickerson

Theater Guild on the Air (often called The United States Steel Hour) was on the air from 9/9/45 – 6/7/53. A sustained series called Theater Guild Dramas preceded it from 12/6/43 - 2/29/44. Theater Guild (now called United States Steel Hour) continued on television from 10/27/53 – 6/12/53, airing on alternate weeks.

It was a showcase for authors and performers and presented plays from New York with distinguished casts. Theater Guild did for Broadway what Lux had done for films.

All shows were 60 minutes long and sponsored by United States Steel. All seasons had summer breaks. 316 shows were broadcast. 91 shows are available to collectors and are indicated by an asterisk (*).

Hosts included Lawrence Langner (the longest), Roger Pryor and Elliott Reid. Music was handled by Harold Levey and Homer Fickett directed.
